INTERNATIONAL UNION OF MINE,
MILL AND SMELTER WORKERS OF AMERICA - INDEPENDENT
(McCarran Committee Request)

CLASSIFIED BY: SP-7 mac/86
DECLASSIFY ON: 4/12/84

PURPOSE:

To request permission to furnish to the McCarran Committee, pursuant to a request from that Committee, documentary evidence from our files of Communist Party or Communist Political Association membership on the part of certain members of captioned union.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated September 17, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised me that on that same date Mr. Don Connors of the McCarran Committee, while at the Bureau, had left a copy of a list of witnesses which the McCarran Committee proposed to subpoena in connection with its hearings concerning the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union. These hearings are being held at Salt Lake City, Utah, at the present time.

The list, as furnished by Connors, contained the names of nineteen individuals. The following eight persons have been indicated as being unfriendly witnesses:

John Clark
Graham Dolan
Leon Gorelick
Rod Holmgren
Clinton Jencks
Orville Larsen
Albert Charles Skinner
Maurice Travis

The Bureau, pursuant to requests, has already furnished the Committee with memoranda reflecting information contained in our files on the above individuals.

Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

Mr. Connors inquired whether there was any evidence reflecting membership in the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association on any of the eight persons expected to be unfriendly.

Subsequently, Mr. Connors advised that he was leaving for Salt Lake City, Utah, on October 4, 1952, and could be reached at the Hotel Utah in Salt Lake City. He requested that any documentary evidence which we might be able to furnish to the Committee be forwarded to him there.

DETAILS:

A review of Bureau files reflects that we are not in possession of documentary evidence of Communist Party or Communist Political Association membership on the part of the following:

John Clark
Clinton Jencks
Orville Larsen

The file review reflects, however, that we have already furnished to the Committee documentary evidence of the Communist Party membership of Maurice Travis.

Our files further reflect the following documentary evidence on the respective individuals:

Graham Philip Dolan

A confidential informant of known reliability who on March 3, 1945, had access to the Communist Political Association records which were maintained on the Second Floor, Quincy Building, 17th and Curtis Streets, Denver, Colorado, reported that along with the membership records of the Communist Political Association was a file of cards entitled "Leave of Absence." Included in these cards was one believed to be a Communist Party membership card for Graham Philip Dolan. It is noted that Dolan's address reflected on the card as 6000 West 29th Avenue, Edgewater, is identical with the address as furnished by Denver Confidential Informant [redacted] as reflected in the prosecutive summary report of Special Agent (P)(u)

Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

Charles R. Robinson dated January 4, 1952, at Denver, Colorado. It is further noted that Dolan was voluntarily inducted into the U. S. Navy on May 22, 1944, the same date that is reflected on the attached Communist Party or Communist Political Association membership card. (S)(u)

Roderick Burton Holmgren

There is attached hereto a Photostat of Holmgren's 1945 Communist Political Association Registration No. 57137 which also bears his 1944 Registration number, No. 65091. (S)(u)

The above Communist Political Association registration card was furnished to the Chicago Office by an anonymous source. (S)(u)

Albert Chester Skinner

Attached hereto is a Photostat of a Photostat of the Communist Political Association card No. 56079 issued to A. S. In December, 1944, and a Photostat of a photograph reflecting the membership of Skinner in the Labor Commission, Communist Party of Illinois. (S)(u)

The above Communist Political Association card and the information relative to Skinner's membership in the Labor Commission, Communist Party of Illinois, were furnished to the Chicago Office by an anonymous source. (S)(u)

Leon Gorelick

A review of Bureau files indicates that the Los Angeles Office is in possession of documentary evidence of the Communist Party membership of Leon Gorelick. Los Angeles has been requested to furnish copies of any documentary evidence in the possession of that Office to the Bureau, but to date, this has not been received. When the above is received from Los Angeles, it will be taken under advisement as of that time whether it can safely be furnished to the McCarran Committee without endangering a Bureau informant or Bureau operations.

Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

OBSERVATION:

It is noted, with respect to the documentary evidence referred to in this memorandum concerning Dolan, Holmgren and Skinner, that in each instance the evidence was furnished by anonymous sources. It is not thought, therefore, that the Bureau would be compromised in any manner by furnishing this evidence to the McCarran Committee for its use in the hearings being conducted in Salt Lake City.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you approve, there is attached hereto a letter to the Special Agent in Charge, Salt Lake City, instructing him to deliver the enclosures to Mr. Don Connors at the Hotel Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. Don Connors of the McCarran Committee called today and asked if it would be possible to have a name check on Thomas Shapiro. Connors stated that Miss Eva Adams, Administrative Assistant to Senator McCarran, had asked him to make this request of the Bureau. Mr. Connors said that no additional identifying information is available except that Shapiro has been traveling back and forth between New York City and Las Vegas, Nevada. He is believed to carry money from New York City to Herman Greenspun in Las Vegas.

I pointed out to Mr. Connors that inasmuch as Shapiro was a common name, we probably have numerous references to such persons in our indices. Mr. Connors said he appreciated this and explained it to Miss Adams. However, he added that he would appreciate it if a check could be made to determine whether we have many persons by this name and, if so, of course, he would understand the impossibility of making a name check on the basis of the limited available information.

ACTION:

The indices are being searched for persons named Thomas Shapiro in New York and Las Vegas. If many references are located, Connors will be advised of the impossibility of making this requested check.

Mr. Don Connors of the McCarran Committee called at 5:37 P.M., October 29, 1952, and in my absence asked for a name check on Philip Shapiro, 1010 Vermont Avenue, Washington, D. C. Mr. Connors explained that he had an urgent telephonic request for this name check from Reno and he would appreciate it, if at all possible, if the results of this check could be furnished to him orally on the morning of October 30. Laughlin

Connors called me at 7:00 P.M., October 29. He referred to his call of October 27, for a name check on Thomas Shapiro and stated that the Senator, in his telephone conversation today, advised that the name of the individual in whom he was interested was not Thomas but Philip Shapiro, a lawyer who had an office at the above address. Connors expressed his regrets for asking for this check so expeditiously but he explained that Senator McCarran personally was interested and he knew the Senator would be most grateful for any attention which could be afforded this request.

Connors had no additional background or personal data concerning Shapiro. I pointed out to him the difficulty of trying to make a check of our indices on a person with such a common name. I explained to Connors that the check would be made on Philip Shapiro "on the nose" and in D. C. only. Mr. Connors stated that this would be most satisfactory.

The Bureau indices do not contain any identifiable subversive, derogatory information which can be identified with the Philip Shapiro in whom the McCarran Committee is interested and Connors was so advised this morning.

ADDENDUM:

Connors called again this morning and stated that information had now been received indicating that Shapiro had a Reserve Commission in the Judge Advocate General's Office and was believed to be in active duty at this time. He later advised that Shapiro's full name was Philip E. Shapiro and that he was a Major now on active duty with the Air Force Security Control Intelligence, located in one of the temporary buildings in the vicinity of McLean Gardens, Washington, D. C. Connors wanted to know whether the Bureau had any way of checking OSI on Shapiro.

He was informed that this was a matter which should be handled directly by the McCarran Committee with OSI and that the Bureau could not be placed in the position of asking another agency for information for the McCarran Committee.

At the specific request of Mr. Connors the Identification Records are being checked for information concerning Shapiro.

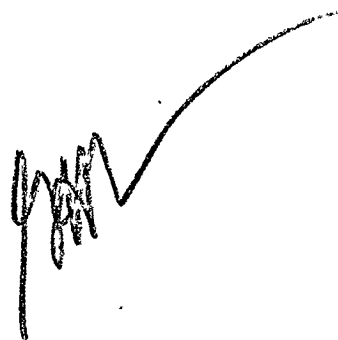

ADDENDUM: October 31, 1952 LLL:mer

The Identification Division contains several records on Shapiro. One such print submitted on Philip Edward Shapiro by CSC in 1941 indicated that he resided at 1721 21st Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. from July, 1936, to August, 1938; at 1737 H Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. from August, 1938, to September, 1940; and from September, 1940, to the time of the submission of the print, at the Tudor Hotel in New York City. In 1941 this Shapiro was employed as a Jr. Accountant, CAF-7, at the New York Navy (Bureau of Yards and Docks).

There is also a service print on a Philip Edward Shapiro, who is identical with the Shapiro mentioned in the above paragraph. This individual entered the service at Washington, D. C. on June 16, 1942, and has serial No. 13075371. This Shapiro was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on March 24, 1911; is 5' 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ " tall; weighs 149 pounds; has brown hair and brown eyes; ruddy complexion; and medium build. He was residing in Washington at the time the print was submitted by the Army Recruiting Station in this city. The last address available for this Shapiro is 1438 Whittier Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., which appears on a CSC print submitted in 1942, at which time Shapiro was an applicant for a job with the War Production Board.

A search of these prints failed to locate any criminal record on Shapiro. Of course, it is not known whether this Shapiro is identical with the one in whom the McCarran Committee is interested.

Mr. Connors was advised today of the results of the check of the Identification Records, at which time it was pointed out to him that, of course, we did not know whether the Shapiro described above is identical with the person by the same name in whom the Committee is interested.

A handwritten signature or set of initials, possibly "W. J. P.", followed by a long, sweeping horizontal line that curves upwards at the end.

Connors expressed his regrets for asking for this check so expeditiously but he explained that Senator McCarran personally was interested and he knew the Senator would be most grateful for any attention which could be afforded this request.

Connors had no additional background or personal data concerning Shapiro. I pointed out to him the difficulty of trying to make a check of our indices on a person with such a common name. I explained to Connors that the check would be made on Philip Shapiro "on the nose" and in D. C. only. Mr. Connors stated that this would be most satisfactory.

The Bureau indices do not contain any identifiable subversive, derogatory information which can be identified with the Philip Shapiro in whom the McCarran Committee is interested and Connors was so advised this morning.

In September, 1951, the Richmond Office forwarded to the Bureau three printed items in the nature of anti-Semitic literature. One folder, purportedly published by the Aryan League of America, described this organization as a non-profit educational association which publishes and distributes literature on racial and economic questions. Membership was offered at one dollar. The forthcoming works were to include "Judas in the White House," "Who Owns America," and other "documented essays on treason in America." All communications were to be addressed to Eustace Mullins, Director, Aryan League of America, 331 North Lewis Street, Staunton, Virginia. One printed article was headed "Patriots, Prepare Yourselves!" with the subheading "Jews are Betraying Us." This article purportedly originated with the Aryan League of America and the American Policy Association.

RE: EUSTACE MULLINS
McCARRAN COMMITTEE REQUEST

In August and September, 1952, the Chicago and Omaha Offices forwarded to the Bureau what were purported to be copies of a speech by a Rabbi Emanuel Rabinovich before a special meeting of the Emergency Council of European Rabbis in Budapest, Hungary, on January 12, 1952. The name Eustace Mullins and the date May 14, 1952, appears at the end of the copy, together with a statement that he had received this alleged speech from a former Bulgarian diplomat who broke with the Communists and reached Budapest where he obtained the copy of this speech while hiding out with anti-Communist friends. He later came to the United States through Hamburg, Germany, and allegedly contacted Mullins and urged him to distribute the speech. The alleged speech is inflammatory in that it purports to divulge the plans for making "every Jew a King and every Gentile a slave!" In view of the allegations, on September 10, 1952, the Richmond Office was instructed to conduct a preliminary inquiry into Mullins' activities and advise the Bureau together with a recommendation as to whether Mullins should be interviewed about the manner in which he allegedly received the speech. No reply has yet been received. (105-15727; 105-19747)

No information could be located in Bureau files on Kasper and Horton, Publishers, Box 552, GPO, New York City.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the McCarran Committee be orally advised that Bureau files contain no information on a Eustace Mullins of New York City, but that one Eustace Clarence Mullins, last known to reside at 331 North Lewis Street, Staunton, Virginia, has engaged in disseminating anti-Semitic writings.

Memorandum to Mr. U. M. Ladd from A. H. Belmont
Re: PAUL ROBERT PORTER

On October 23, 1952, Mr. William Sinnott of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee for the Mutual Security Agency also requested information for Senator Ferguson. He was advised on October 27, 1952, that this information would be furnished to Senator Ferguson.

On October 28, 1952, Mr. Nichols advised Senator Ferguson telephonically that the Bureau had conducted a loyalty investigation on Porter and, therefore, would only be able to furnish him with public source information.

There is attached a blind memorandum thought suitable for dissemination which incorporates only background information and public source information.

SCOPE OF SEARCH:

The name of Paul Robert Porter was given a complete search for all main files and all "see" references since January, 1949, at which time a loyalty investigation was conducted concerning him. The Identification Records were also checked and no arrest record was located.

DETAILS:

Bureau Investigation:

Porter was the subject of an Internal Security-Hatch Act case initiated in 1943 at the request of the Attorney General as a result of an attack made against Porter before Congress by Congressman Martin Dies. He was also the subject of a full-field loyalty investigation completed during 1949, which was based upon information furnished by Paul Michael Crouch, a former Communist Party organizer. Crouch stated that Porter was probably the [redacted] a Communist Party organizer in Norfolk, Virginia, during 1934 and 1935. Crouch also furnished information to the effect that Paul Porter was, in 1935, a leader of an extreme left group of the Socialist Party in Kenosha, Wisconsin, and that "Paul Porter wrote a booklet far more revolutionary in language than most Communist books." b6 b7C

The Hatch Act reports were furnished to the Inter-departmental Committee on Employee Investigations and to the State Department. The loyalty reports concerning Porter were furnished the Civil Service Commission, the Central Intelligence Agency and the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Memorandum to Mr. D. M. Ladd from A. H. Belmont
Re: PAUL ROBERT PORTER

Results of Bureau Investigation:

The afore-mentioned investigations reflect the following pertinent information:

Porter admitted membership in the Socialist Party from November, 1928 until February, 1941, during which time he was a member of the National Executive Committee. According to informants, he has also been allied with the Socialist "right of center" group and led the fight against the Communists when they attempted to take over control of the Socialist Party in 1935.

Upton Close, noted news commentator, advised that Porter, as his secretary, assisted him in conducting world tours. In approximately 1931, Porter was sent by Close on a tour with a group of labor students and one of the stops included a month's stay in Moscow, Russia. According to Close, upon his return to this country, Porter was completely disillusioned with the Soviet regime.

Porter, as an organizer for the Socialist Party, in 1933, helped organize the taxicab drivers in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Acquaintances advised that Porter was anti-Communist and did not participate and was not responsible for the violence which occurred during the taxicab strike.

In interviews with Porter by Bureau Agents during 1941 and 1949, Porter advised that he married Eleanor Nelson * on February 4, 1933, at New York City, and separated from her in September, 1933, because of her Communist activities. Nelson is an alleged Communist Party member and reportedly was connected with the Soviet espionage conspiracy in Washington, D. C. Porter was divorced from Nelson on January 29, 1940. (101-352-18; 74-1333-3055 page 20)

[redacted] (subject of Bureau file 100-18689) is the [redacted]

[redacted] In the afore-mentioned interviews, Paul Porter advised that relations between him and [redacted] were strained and that he had not seen [redacted] for some time. (Paul Michael Crouch, Miami informant; 74-1333-2854)

Paul Crouch advised that Porter wrote a pamphlet financed by the Socialist Party entitled "Which Way For the

Re: PAUL ROBERT PORTER

Socialist Party?" which was purchased and widely distributed by the Communist Party. He also advised that this pamphlet was discussed in the Communist Party district organizers conferences in 1937. (Signed statements of Paul Michael Crouch)

Additional Information in Bureau Files:

Subsequent to an interview concerning Paul R. Porter, Paul Crouch advised on May 17, 1949, that he had heard that James Porter was the State Director of the United Mine Workers in Wisconsin and while he felt that James Porter had probably left the Communist Party, he might still be a secret member. (121-6159-101)

During the course of the investigation captioned [redacted] Loyalty of Government Employees," it was ascertained that Paul Porter [redacted] [redacted] at one time. Upon being interviewed concerning this individual, Porter advised he considered her entirely loyal. [redacted] was recently suspended from her employment with the Department of Commerce as a security risk. (121-3076-186)

b6
b7C

None of the above information is being furnished the McCarran Committee inasmuch as a Presidential Directive precludes our furnishing information from a loyalty investigation.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the attached blind memorandum be furnished the McCarran Committee. It is further recommended that the McCarran Committee representative be orally advised that the Bureau has conducted a loyalty investigation concerning Porter and that a Presidential Directive precludes our furnishing this information to the Committee.

ENCLOSURE

DETAILS:

Volume Two of the Hearings Before a Special Committee on Un-American Activities of the House of Representatives, 75th Congress, Third Session, page 1593, reports that Paul Porter, in collaboration with Earl Browder, former head of the Communist Party of the United States, supported a resolution offered at the Third Session of the Congress of the American League Against War and Fascism held at Cleveland, Ohio, on January 5, 1936. This resolution was proposed on behalf of the Socialist Party to support the Congress of the American League Against War and Fascism and to encourage all trade unions to affiliate themselves with that organization. (DCR Vol 2, page 1593)

The American League Against War and Fascism has been cited by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

The March 22, 1937, issue of the "Daily Worker," east coast Communist newspaper, carried an article on page 6 entitled "Porter Pamphlet a Platform For All Progressive Forces in Socialist Party" by A. B. Magil. This article commented favorably concerning Porter's recent pamphlet "Which Way For the Socialist Party?," stating that it was by no means a Communist pamphlet but was in substantial agreement with the position of the Communist Party on such basic questions as the fight against war and fascism, the Farm-Labor Party and the struggle within the trade union movement. (121-14197-56 encl)

The "Congressional Record" for February 1, 1943, sets forth an address delivered before the House of Representatives by Congressman Martin Dies wherein he referred to Paul A. Porter as being undesirable for further employment in Federal Government. (101-3730-5)

AKA LUCY TEMPKIN CONKLIN,
MRS. EDWARD GROFF CONKLIN

FILE 4/11/84 81 SP-7 mac/et

SYNOPSIS:

Pursuant to a request from McCarran Committee, Bureau files reviewed and revealed that captioned individual, a Russian-born naturalized citizen, was reported in 1940 by former CI Robert H as an active and ardent Communist, a self-confessed Communist organizer and agitator. Bureau investigation does not substantiate this allegation. One person has stated that in her opinion Tempkin would always lean "left" and was Communist in her political belief. While living in Washington, D. C., in 1940's, Tempkin and husband, Groff Conklin, were friendly with reported Soviet espionage agents and members of Communist underground. It is recommended that attached blind memorandum be forwarded to McCarran Committee.

PURPOSE:

To advise you pursuant to a request from the McCarran Committee of information from our files concerning the captioned individual.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated October 28, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised that on that same date a representative of the McCarran Committee had requested information from our files on, among others, Lucy Tempkin, also known as Mrs. Groff Conklin. Advice was furnished by the Committee representative that Tempkin was connected with the United Nations in New York City, had worked for the Book and Magazine Guild, and was associated with David Zaslodowsky.

SCOPE OF SEARCH:

In the preparation of these memoranda a complete search for all subversive references was made. Tempkin's name and aliases were also searched in the Identification Division where no arrest record was found.

Memo to Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

November 5, 1952

BUREAU INVESTIGATION:

A security-type investigation relative to Lucy Tempkin Conklin was initiated by this Bureau in September, 1940, after information had been received from Guenther Reinhardt (former CI Robert M) that she and her husband were both active workers in the Communist Party and had moved to Washington, D. C. The investigation concerning Lucy Tempkin Conklin was closed in July, 1949. Her name is carried on the Security Index by the New York Office, office of origin.

OBSERVATIONS:

Bureau investigation has not substantiated the information as furnished by Guenther Reinhardt (former CI Robert M). Even though Reinhardt has been discredited as a Bureau informant, the information furnished by him to the effect that Lucy Tempkin Conklin was a self-admitted Communist organizer and agitator as well as other information furnished by him is being included in the attached blind memorandum as coming from an informant of unknown reliability. This action is being taken since Reinhardt is known to, and has been contacted, by the Committee, and has appeared as a friendly witness before the McCarran Committee. From a review of Bureau files, it is thought that the Committee's instant request is based upon information furnished to the Committee by Reinhardt.

DISSEMINATION:

The substance of the information appearing in the attached blind memorandum has been appropriately disseminated.

ACTION:

That the attached blind memorandum be furnished to the McCarran Committee.

Bureau investigation conducted in Omaha, 1941, based on Ashbrook's name being included on mailing list of "People's World," Communist newspaper. Found to possess Communist sympathies, but not active due to poor health. [Subscribed to Daily Worker and paid dues to Communist Political Association Omaha, 1944.] Has been member of, recipient of pamphlets and publications, or pen contributor to at least six cited organizations. BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated October 28, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised me that on that date, Mr. Don Connors of the McCarran Committee had requested name checks on six individuals whom he said were connected with the United Nations in New York. Memo to Mr. Ladd from Mr. Belmont RE: HARRIETTE ASHBROOK

BUREAU INVESTIGATION:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A security-type investigation was instituted on Harriette Ashbrook by the Omaha Office January, 1941, based upon information received that in 1939 she had been on the mailing list of the "People's World," a west coast Communist newspaper. Investigation disclosed that Ashbrook did possess Communist sympathies but that she was not active due to poor health. The case was closed by Omaha report dated March 25, 1944. (100-15000)

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

Another governmental investigative agency advised the Omaha Office that the mailing list of the "People's World," as of September, 1939, included the name of Harriette Ashbrook of Mitchell, Nebraska. This information is not being set forth in the blind memorandum because the source is not known and the information has not been verified by this Bureau. (C-2, Omaha; 100-1500-1)

The review of Bureau files disclosed no information to indicate that Harriette Ashbrook is or has been connected with the United Nations, or has associated with known or suspected Soviet agents. The only information connecting Ashbrook with the Book and Magazine Guild and with David Zahledowski came from Guenther Reinhardt, a discredited former Bureau informant. The information furnished by Reinhardt is being set forth in the blind memorandum since it is known that Reinhardt is now furnishing information to the McCarran Committee and instant name check request indicates Reinhardt is now furnishing to the McCarran Committee the same information previously furnished to this Bureau.

DISSEMINATION:

The substance of the information in the attached blind memorandum has been disseminated to interested agencies.

CURT BERNHEIM, aka.,
KURT BERNHEIM
(McCarran Committee Request)

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 4/11/94 BY SP-7mac/AB

SYNOPSIS:

Pursuant to McCarran Committee request Bureau files reviewed which revealed that in October, 1942, Guenther Reinhardt, (former CI Robert M), reported information received from Kurt Singer, a German refugee writer of unknown reliability, to the effect that before coming to the U.S. Bernheim had been employed by and had represented different Communist publishing houses in Europe, and had acted as an agent for Comintern. Investigation by G-2 and Bureau revealed no activities inimical to the safety of the U.S. Singer alleged association between Bernheim and Soviet agent and other Soviet nationals in Sweden before Bernheim came to U.S. Recommended that McCarran Committee be orally advised of Bureau investigation and the allegations of Singer, a source of unknown reliability.

PURPOSE:

To advise you pursuant to a request from the McCarran Committee of information in our files concerning captioned individual.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated October 28, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised me that on that same date a representative of the McCarran Committee had requested a name check on, among others, Curt Bernheim. Advice was received from the Committee's representative that Bernheim, while in the United States, was a member of the German Communist Party.

No blind memorandum is being prepared for dissemination to the McCarran Committee inasmuch, as it will be pointed out below, pertinent information appearing in Bureau files concerning Bernheim has been furnished by informants of unknown reliability. It is further noted that some of the information, as furnished by one of the informants, was in turn obtained by him from other sources of unknown reliability.

Memo to Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

SCOPE OF SEARCH:

In the preparation of this memorandum, a complete search for all subversive references was made. The search was not limited to locality. A search was also made through the Identification Division where no arrest record was found.

BUREAU INVESTIGATION:

A security-type investigation was initiated by this Bureau concerning Bernheim in November, 1942. This investigation was predicated upon a report submitted by Guenther Reinhardt (former CI Robert M.). Reinhardt reported that he had obtained information from Kurt Singer, of unknown reliability, who alleged that Bernheim, prior to coming to the United States, had been employed by and had represented different Communist publishing houses; had been an agent for at least one Comintern representative; and had himself acted as an agent for the Comintern.

This investigation was closed in October, 1950, when the New York Office advised that the investigation had failed to disclose any activity on the part of Bernheim that would indicate that he was a security threat to the United States.

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

Curt Bernheim was born on July 25, 1908, at Salzburg, Austria. He entered the United States through the Port of New York City on December 18, 1941, from Barranquilla, Colombia. He entered the United States Army on September 9, 1943, and while in the Army became a naturalized United States citizen at Jacksonville, Florida, on November 5, 1943.

Under date of October 27, 1942, Guenther Reinhardt, a discredited former Bureau informant, submitted a report concerning Bernheim which contained information furnished to Reinhardt by Kurt Singer. According to Singer, Bernheim was a German refugee at that time living in New York City, employed by Modern Age Books, and had been an active Communist before coming to the United States. Singer stated to Reinhardt that Bernheim, until just shortly prior to that time had lived in Sweden and, while in Sweden, had been a representative of Publishing Cooperatives of Foreign Workers, of Moscow, USSR. Singer further alleged that Bernheim had also been an agent for Weiland Herzfelde and the latter's publishing firm,

Memo to Mr. D. M. Ladd
from A. H. Belmont

Malik Verlag. Herzfelde was reportedly a Communist and the Malik Verlag a Communist publication. Singer further alleged that Bernheim was an agent for Willy Muenzenberg, a representative of the Comintern. According to Reinhardt, Singer further alleged that Bernheim himself was an agent of the Comintern, and Singer maintained that Swedish Police records contained irrefutable evidence of that fact. (97-1475-1X)

During the course of the ensuing investigation, Singer was contacted on July 27, 1943, and advised that Bernheim had once been employed by the Communist publishing house Malik Verlag in Berlin, Germany, and later was an agent for the Communist Edition Du Carrefour in Paris, France. The latter, according to Singer, was headed by the Comintern leader Willy Muenzenberg. Singer also advised Bureau Agents that Bernheim had represented the Foreign Languages Publishing House in Scandinavia which had its headquarters in Moscow.

Bureau files reflect that while Bernheim was in the United States Army an extensive investigation of him was conducted by G-2. Neither the Army's investigation nor the Bureau's investigation substantiated any of Singer's allegations, as furnished by himself or through Reinhardt. During the course of G-2's investigation, Bernheim was interviewed and furnished a signed statement. In this statement Bernheim advised that Weiland Herzfelde was the president of the Malik Verlag Publishing House and also his brother-in-law. Bernheim maintained in this same signed statement that he had never met; had never spoken to; and had never written to Muenzenberg, and further that he had never had any political contact with him or any Communist or semi-Communist organization. Bernheim also stated that throughout his life he had been a firm believer in political, economical and humanitarian ideas that were traditional in free democratic countries like the United States and Sweden, and further that he was proud to be a citizen of the United States.

Singer was again contacted by Agents of this Bureau on August 14, 1950. At that time, he stated that he had been introduced to Bernheim by Axel Holmstroem, a Swedish publisher, at Holmstroem's office at Stockholm, Sweden, in 1935. Singer further stated that Bernheim was introduced to him as an agent who was selling Swedish publishing rights of German authors and as a representative of Malik, a German publishing house. Singer related that at some time subsequent to the introduction Holmstroem told him that Bernheim had negotiated with Holmstroem to publish "The Brown Book," not further identified, and that during the negotiations Bernheim had introduced an individual to Holmstroem whom the latter subsequently determined to have been Otto Katz.

In 1942, Los Angeles confidential informant, [redacted] b7D advised that Otto Katz was an OGPU agent who was then situated in Mexico City; that Katz had had the reputation of being a Soviet agent since prior to 1929; and that during his widespread activities in Europe Katz had been connected with certain OGPU murders. Singer stated also that he had been in Sweden from 1935 to 1940 as a correspondent and author and had developed a wide acquaintance in literary circles, and because of this had many mutual acquaintances in Sweden with Bernheim. He further stated that he was unable to recall specific sources as to Bernheim's activities in Sweden, with the exception of the Otto Katz incident, mentioned above, as related to him by Holmstroem.

Without being able to recall his sources, Singer stated that Bernheim, while in Sweden, was an intimate friend of Madam Alexandra Kallanta, at that time Soviet Ambassador to Sweden, and had attended numerous tea parties and social functions at the Soviet Embassy. He further stated that Bernheim was a very good friend of George Bruntig, Swedish senator who was head of Spanish Republicans Relief in Sweden during the Spanish Civil War. He further stated that Bruntig had subsequently been proposed by the USSR to be the United Nations Administrator for Trieste, which proposal had been vetoed by the United States.

Singer also informed that some of the authors who Bernheim represented in Sweden were Franz C. Weiskopf, Igon Kisch and Anna Seghers; that Bernheim also endeavored to sell rights for numerous pamphlets published by Verlag Fuer Auslaendische Arbeiter, Moscow (Publishing House for Foreign Workers). Singer also stated that it was a matter of public knowledge that Weiskopf was the former editor of the Berlin Communist newspapers "Die Welt am Morgen" and "Die Welt am Abend."

In August, 1945, former Special Employee Robert R.E. Kempner advised that following the Reichstag fire in February, 1933, a mass flight of Communist deputies and functionaries took place from Germany. According to this source, one of the Communist groups settled in Moscow and began publishing two magazines "Das Wort" and "International Literature;" that Franz C. Weiskopf was

from A. H. Belmont

a contributor to "Das Wort" and that Anna Seghers contributed to "International Literature." This same source further advised that Willy Muenzenberg, a former Communist deputy in the German Reichstag and former manager of several Communist papers in Berlin, was one of the most active of a Communist group which settled in France after the flight from Germany.

With regard to Egon Kisch, former Special Employee Kempner advised that this individual was an important figure in the Communist movement in Mexico City; that Kisch, who was a famous writer, had been born in Czechoslovakia, later lived in Germany, then in Russia, and finally in Mexico. Los Angeles confidential informant, [] has advised that Kisch, a novelist and reporter, had been a Soviet agent as early as 1929, and had been active in Asia and Germany. (97-1475-14) b7D

As was noted above, Singer, the original informant of the allegations against Bernheim, is of unknown reliability and had been unable to furnish the identities, with the exception of that of Alex Holmstroem, of any of the sources of his information. Because of this, it is not thought advisable to furnish this information to the McCarran Committee.

With reference to Singer, it is noted that during the course of the investigation conducted by G-2, Robert Van Gelder, Editor of the "New York Times" Book Review Section was interviewed. He advised that Bernheim had done several book reviews for the "New York Times," one of them being a review of a book entitled "Duel for the Northland" by Kurt D. Singer. Van Gelder further advised that after the publication of this book review, the author of the book, Singer, had written a letter to the "Times" complaining against the unfairness of the criticism and alleging that Bernheim was a Communist.

From a comparison of the information concerning Bernheim as furnished by Singer with that furnished by the Committee's representative, it is thought probable that Guenther Reinhardt was the source of the Committee's information in instant case. Because of this, it is thought advisable to orally advise the Committee of the substance of the information appearing in Bureau files as furnished by Singer and also of the fact that the Bureau conducted an investigation of Bernheim's activities, which investigation did not reflect that his presence was a threat to the safety of the United States.

from A. H. Belmont

RECOMMENDATION:

That the McCarran Committee be orally advised of the information concerning Bernheim as furnished by Reinhardt and Singer, and that it be specifically pointed out that the information was received from sources of unknown reliability.

It is further recommended that the McCarran Committee be advised orally that since the receipt of the original information an extensive investigation has been conducted by this Bureau and that there has been no indication of any activity on the part of Bernheim which would reflect that he is a security threat to the United States.

MCCARRAN COMMITTEE REQUESTALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 4/10/84 BY SP-7 mac/BBPURPOSE:

To advise you pursuant to a request from the McCarran Committee that our files contain no photograph of Mordecai Brown.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated November 10, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised me that Mr. Don Connors of the McCarran Committee had called and requested a photograph of Brown. According to Connors, this request had been made of him by Mr. Jay Sourwine, and Connors had no additional information concerning Brown.

Connors was advised that in view of the commonness of this name the file check would be limited to "on the nose" references. Connors stated that this was satisfactory.

RESULT OF FILE SEARCH:

Bureau indices reveal two references to a Mordecai Brown. These references are contained in 87-2059-41 and 121-4-55904. No photograph is available in either reference.

ACTION:

That the McCarran Committee be advised that Bureau files contain no photograph of Mordecai Brown.

I told Connors that in view of the commonness of this name we would check our files only "on the nose." Connors said this would be most satisfactory.

The files are being checked.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated November 19, 1952, Mr. Laughlin advised that the McCarran Committee had requested a name check on Subimal Mookherjee, who at one time did graduate work at Harvard University and is believed to be presently working for the International Monetary Fund in Washington, D. C.

DETAILS:

There is ^{summary} only one reference in Bureau files concerning Subimal Mookherjee. The Immigration and Naturalization Service submitted in January, 1952, a form reflecting that Subimal Mookherjee, born September 16, 1923, in Pakistan, was admitted to the United States on September 29, 1948, as a student for the purpose of accepting a scholarship at Harvard University. The form also noted that Mookherjee's status was changed from student to an individual who is a member of an international organization on October 25, 1951. The organization was not named. (105-16424-241-796)
